2. The Director talked to Acting Under Secretary of State Murphy on the subject of the bill authorizing funds to repair bomb damage to the Vatican. The subject of the conversation was a letter from Assistant Secretary Hill which appeared to take a rather lukewarm position on the matter. Mr. Murphy explained to the Director that although the Department was in favor of this legislation they could not get themselves into a position supporting the proposal affirmatively for political considerations. Mr. Murphy conceded that perhaps the Hill letter had been a little too legalistic.

3. The Director agreed to appear on a TV broadcast with Cong. Harold Ostertag of New York. The questions for the interview are to be developed between the Congressman's Administrative Assistant and Col. Grogan.
